About People And Things

ligion ever held in this community. The people of this section are urged to get out of their minds the idea that this is to be just an ordinary revival or that it is to be confined to local territory. This great Greek evangelist is a preacher who has a message that should be heard by everybody, far and near, and it is predicted that his fame will spread until folks will flock from many miles away to hear him. Spread the glad tidings that a gospel feast is in store for the people of this section of Alabama.

MANY WIDOWS—Water Superintendent Owen reports that widows are becoming more and more numerous in Elba. He says he found six of the black spider variety in his rounds of meter reading the past week. Needless to say, he says he is very careful to look for black widows when he opens up meter boxes.

SEVERELY INJURED—O. C. Smith, Pine Level community's melon king, suffered a serious injury one day last week. He had engaged U. B. Hudson to haul a truck load of melons to Opelika. Soon after loading, Mr. Smith was seated on top of the load when the truck wheel ran into a hole. The endgate came out, about 60 melons crashed to the road with Mr. Smith following suit. In the fall, his hand came in violent contact with a fence, laying wide open the wrist and back of his left hand. The melons were made unfit for hauling. Not to be thwarted by anything of the kind, after hastily dressing his wounded hand, Mr. Smith hitched up his mules and hurried to the field for more melons. The trip was then resumed. Before reaching Opelika, Mr. Smith said his hand began paining him severely, so he stopped at a drug store and had it dressed. After disposing of his melons he and Mr. Hudson started on the return trip. Before reaching home, Mr. Smith says his hand was hurting so that he had Dr. Mixon to dress it. The injured hand and arm continued to be so painful that he came to Elba last Friday and called Dr. Braswell. The patient was taken to the home of his brother, J. D. Smith, where he remained for several days. Blood poisoning was threatened, but under the skilled care of Dr. Braswell and loving ministrations of his daughter, Barbara, his condition was sufficiently improved that he was able to return home Monday. It will probably be some time before Mr. Smith will be able to use his left hand, but he will be able to at least superintend the moving of his huge melon crop, which has been sadly neglected during his forced absence.

FINE MEETING—Rev. B. S. Franklin reports a wonderful revival meeting held at Basin Baptist Church last week. He reports 21 conversions, which even exceeds the fine record of 19 as a result of his meeting at Alberton the previous week. Brother Franklin is conducting a meeting at Zion Chapel this week.

BIG JOB—Prof. J. C. Dixon reports that application is to be made immediately for Elba's school improvements as a part of the PWA program. About $25,000 is the amount being applied for and will include needed repairs to the old buildings, construction of a vocational building and an auditorium. Professor Dixon says Elba's security has been pronounced satisfactory, so he can see no reason why the application should not be approved. Probably few of our people realize the enormity of the necessary work of preparing such an application. Counting seven copies of each page, about 100 pages of voluminous papers must go into it. With these added improvements to Elba's school plant, and four busses hauling pupils in from the rural districts, our schools should take on new life.

SHOULD BE SENTENCED—Forest Talbot returned Sunday afternoon from a ten-days stay at the Veterans' Hospital at Hines, Ill. He went there for a check-up on his physical condition as required by the Government. Forest says the Hines hospital is an immense structure, four stories and over a quarter of a mile in length, and that there are about two thousand patients there from all parts of the United States. Mr. Talbot says he witnessed many exceedingly pathetic sights at the hospital, a result of the late World War. He says he wishes it were possible for all manufacturers of war munitions and all other advocates of war to be sentenced to at least a few months confinement in a hospital similar to the one at Hines. He says he believes the sights they would see and what they would hear would cause them to lose all their appetite for war. Hines is a suburb of Chicago.

PAVING—Asphalt and slag are being applied on the stretch of highway extending from the Dyess hill to a point near Windham's Mill, on the Elba-Troy highway. Twelve carloads of slag have arrived in the A. C. L. yards and two tank cars of asphalt are kept at a high temperature by steam from the Elba Gin & Warehouse Company boilers, which have been kept steamed up for that purpose for the past several days. After the 21 days have elapsed the final coat of asphalt and fine slag will be applied and the highway leading out of Elba toward Troy will be completely surfaced. Our people are anxiously awaiting announcement that the remaining mileage to the Pike County line will be paved.

A LITTLE PAINT—"Uncle Joe" Young says he didn't realize that a little paint could make such a difference in the appearance of houses until he tried it on his. His home and the tenant property to the east look very pretty in their new coats of white with green trimming.

CITY FARMING—Mr. J. F. Brunson is demonstrating what a city farmer can do. His three-fourths of an acre of corn, across the street from where he resides in West Elba, is as fine as can be found most anywhere. A peculiar thing about it is that it has never had a scrape in it but has been plowed altogether with a steel beam and scooter. It is conservatively estimated that the patch will yield thirty bushels. His sweet potato patch is also unusually fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Henderson of Troy were recent visitors at the F. D. Veal home in West Elba. Mr. and Mrs. Veal and their daughter, Mrs. Bruce Maddox, visited at the Henderson home last Wednesday. The Hendersons reside at 207 South Brundidge Street in Troy.

Stage Set For Whole Week Of Entertainment At Elba's First "Home Coming" Party

Everything will be in readiness for celebration of Elba's first "Home-Coming," which begins next Sunday, August 11, and will continue through the 17th, according to reports made to the general committee by chairmen of the several committees.

As has already been stated, hundreds of visitors, including native Elbians, former residents and friends of the City, are expected during the week, and splendid entertainment is being provided.

The Boys Industrial School Band of Birmingham, under direction of Capt. Eugene C. Jordan, will contribute a large share in the entertainment. The boys are expected to reach Elba Wednesday and will be here until Friday afternoon. You do not want to miss a single one of their concerts.

The large number of public speakers engaged for the week should satisfy all those who enjoy platform oratory. Then there will be three days of singing. Both Sacred Harp and Seven Shape singers are given places on the program.

The historical pageant to be presented Thursday evening will be one of the most interesting events of the entire week. About 300 people are taking part in the pageant, with about eighteen different scenes. Much time and effort is being devoted to this one entertainment, and it will certainly be worth witnessing.

PROGRAM FOR THE WEEK

The program as set out below is the suggested program for the week and we hope to conform to it as nearly as practicable. We are sure there will be some changes.

THREE COFFEE FARMERS WIN DECISION OVER LAND BANK

MONTGOMERY, Aug. 3.—The U. S. District Court yesterday confirmed over the protest (the only one) of the Federal Land Bank debt adjustment and conciliation proposals in three farm debtor cases filed under the 1934 amendment to the bankruptcy act.

In each of the three cases the Federal Land Bank was the sole protestant in hearings before Conciliation Commissioner M. A. Owen, seeking to block the proposed settlement terms tendered debt ridden farmers by the new deal act, according to the Conciliation Commissioner. The objections were upon the grounds that the settlement proposals "were not equitable and feasible."

"However, it was learned the position of the Federal Land Bank in these cases was virtually the same as in the vast majority of the many cases filed in the U. S. District Court. In most cases, the record shows the Federal Land Bank was able to block conciliation proceedings, since it was first necessary for the debtor to obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors for such conciliation, before any debt or installment payment adjustment could be attempted. The fact that the Federal Land Bank held first mortgages on the property and that other creditors either held second mortgages or crop and livestock mortgages, was said to heve been responsible for the Federal Land Bank's position on conciliation.

The case of Henry M. Eddins of Coffee County, whose terms of settlement were confirmed yesterday by the court over the bank's protest, is typical of others.

Eddins owed Mrs. L. A. Boyd $1,653, secured by a crop mortgage. He owed the Federal Land Bank $217 on a mortgage on his land for $1,335. He owed A. J. Morrow, tax collector of Coffee County, $32.

Eddins showed that his net income from crops for the year of 1934 was $173. Of this amount he offered to pay the Federal Land Bank $50 cash, the balance of the delinquent installments to be paid one-fourth each year beginning in the Fall of 1935.

He proposed to pay Mrs. Boyd $123 and the balance in installments over four years. The taxes were to be paid in cash.

Mrs. Boyd and the tax collector agreed to these terms, but the Federal Land Bank protested, through its attorney, B. W. Smith. Attorney Smith contended that the tax collector, having a prior claim, could not be rightly considered as a creditor in the sense implied by the farm debtor act.

But the bank's attorney was overruled by Conciliation Commissioner Owen, who was sustained by Judge Charles B. Kennamer, of the U. S. District Court.

Similar orders were issued in the farm debtor cases of Samuel A. Hattaway and Henry W. Dean, both of Coffee County.

Farm debtor petitions filed by Robert L. Lambert of Coffee County and J. Will Lambert of Troy were dismissed by the court on the grounds that the petitioners had failed to submit proposals for extension and composition of debts within the time allotted.

LIVE RATTLER

Mr. J. T. Foreman, who lives near the Blue Hill on the Troy highway, brings them back alive when he goes hunting for rattlesnakes, or at least brought in a real live one last Thursday which was exhibited around town for several hours. The snake was a very large one and measured about six feet in length. He had 14 rattles when captured. J. T. said his dog "bayed" the snake in White Water swamp in front of his house and that he captured him by the use of a long pole, and a shoe string which was made into a loop and placed over the snake's head.

FREAK CORN

Charlie Long, rehabilitation farmer (or "bull farmer," as most people call them), brought to The Clipper office the first of the week a freak stalk of corn. The stalk is about nine feet long and well developed. The first three joints above the ground have produced small ears of corn, but nothing resembling an ear can be found on this tall stalk at any other place. The corn is said to be of the Tennessee Red Cob variety.

Judge J. A. Carnley informs us that his father, Mr. J. O. Carnley, who has been almost at the point of death for the past two weeks at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Holland Head, is slowly improving. Hopes are entertained for his recovery. Mrs. Head resides about 2½ miles this side of Opp on the Elba-Opp highway.

Sara Elizabeth and Marion Crawford have returned to their home in Dothan after spending some time with their aunt, Mrs. J. L. Jones.

Mrs. Pearl Brock and Miss Jean Brock returned Tuesday from a week's visit at Grayton Beach, Fla., where they were guests of Mrs. O. L. Ford of Oklahoma City.

About People and Things

By C. B. McDowell

FIRST COTTON BALE—Every year, in every community, there is a scramble to see who can bring in the first bale of cotton. This year, so far as Elba was concerned, it was a race between the Ford and the Chevrolet, or at least that is the way some of our wisecrackers looked at it. The Ford won out when Mr. Fountaine Lee brought a bale to the Elba Gin & Warehouse Co. last Thursday and it was ginned that day. It weighed 505 pounds and was auctioned on the public square Friday morning, Mr. J. W. Talley acting as auctioneer. A purse of $23.50 had been made up and Mr. Jesse Brown purchased the bale at 15 cents per pound, which was about 3½ cents above the market price. J. D. Smith, who keeps track of such matters, says the first bale of cotton was ginned in Elba last year on August 7. And so the first bale this year was a full week earlier than last year. Mr. C. E. Dorsey, representing the Chevrolet, ginned the second bale last Saturday. Mr. Horace Smith of the Ino community ginned the third bale in Elba. Cotton is opening rapidly and if the almost daily showers that have been falling do not interfere, cotton will be coming in quite freely from now on. Reports from most sections of the county indicate that this year's crop is as good or better than it was last year.

HEAR THE GREEK!—Judging by expressions heard from people from near and far, who say they are going to hear that Greek, the revival meeting which is to start at the Elba Methodist Church Sunday, August 18, this meeting bids fair to be one of the greatest revivals held in this section since the Jim Davis meeting. It would be difficult to say too much in praise of this powerful Greek evangelist. He is filled with the Holy Spirit and his ability to sway his audiences is remarkable. Born and reared in the traditional Garden of Eden, educated in Loyrood in the Greek Catholic Church, then converted to Protestantism, he has an experience possessed by few men. He delights in telling of his wonderful experience and the way in which he relates it is worth going many miles to hear. And then the Ramsey sisters, who sing their way into the hearts of their hearers everywhere they go, will take a prominent part in the various services. They are very effective workers among children and young people. A great spiritual feast is in store for the people of Elba and surrounding country beginning Sunday, August 18, and continuing for two weeks.

* * * * *

ANOTHER FINE MEETING—Rev. B. S. Franklin rounded out three weeks of unusually successful revival meetings when he closed another fine meeting at Zion Chapel last Friday night. The first was at Alberton, the second at Basin and the third at Zion Chapel. It is reported that an average of around twenty conversions resulted at each meeting.

* * * * *

OTHER MEETINGS—Rev. W. J. Hughes preached the opening sermon Monday night of a series at Liberty Methodist Church. A crowd of people that taxed the capacity of the building was in attendance. Another immense crowd was present Tuesday night. The meeting will continue throughout the week. The pastor, Rev. Gilbert, is doing a fine work at Liberty.

It is reported that County Baptist Missionary Johnson conducted a very successful and largely attended revival meeting at Pine Level Church last week.

BASEBALL—From reading the home-coming printed programs, one would get the idea that the colored boys have a monopoly on Elba's baseball activities. Bud Conner says such ideas are all wet and that plans are being made to put on at least two fast white games during the week. A gent named Kent, who twirled winning ball for Abbeville in the Dixie League, has been engaged. Warren Ellis, one of the niftiest catchers ever to don a mask, protector, mitt, etc., in this vicinity, and several other stars of other days, will be on hand to help Bud Conner, Alfred Seymoure, John Kendrick et al uphold Elba's reputation as a baseball center. Strong teams will be Elba's opponents.

* * * * *

STILL GOING STRONG—Some of our folks seem to have gotten the idea that the Federal Housing Act program is about to close in this community. Such is by no means the case. The program is going strong and reports from all over the country show that building throughout the nation, and particularly in the South, has doubled as a result of the generous terms offered to property owners whereby they can borrow money with which to make needed repairs and erect new buildings. C. B. McDowell is still looking for prospects and will be glad to help you obtain money on the most liberal terms ever offered for a like purpose. Mr. J. M. Bonneau, chairman of the local committee, is also ready and willing to assist you in any possible way.

* * * * *

UNION SERVICE—At a meeting of local pastors Tuesday, it was decided to hold a union religious service Thursday morning, August 15, at 11 o'clock, at the Elba Methodist Church. Singers from the choirs of the Methodist, Baptist, and Church of Christ Churches will unite in the service. Efforts are being made to have a visiting former Elba pastor deliver the sermon. Home-coming week visitors as well as local lovers of religious services are cordially invited to attend. This service will add dignity to the week's program and will go a long way toward rounding out a well-balanced and diversified series of activities.

GOOD EXPERIENCE—Frank Perdue has been pinch hitting for Olin Winston at the Elba Merchants Exchange during the last two weeks while Olin has been away at Camp Beauregard with the local unit of National Guards. Frank is planning to attend school at Auburn, alma mater of his father and his three uncles.

* * * * *

ELBA STILL LEADS—Nearly every week we have our attention called to something in which Elba is taking the lead. This week's leadership centers about the Elba Merchants Exchange. Mr. Royall W. Reynolds of Clio is spending a few days studying the methods employed by Manager J. F. Brunson which have proved so successful in the local institution's operation ever since it was established October 16, 1931. Mr. Reynolds expects to open the Clio Merchants Exchange about August 15, and will use the Elba Merchants Exchange as a pattern.

Manager Brunson says that he has received inquiries from all over Alabama concerning the system he uses and it is likely that exchanges will be established at other points as a result of the fine record made by the Elba institution.

The Elba Merchants Exchange opened October 16, 1931, upstairs in the First National Bank building. It moved downstairs July 15, 1934. From the beginning it has been one of the community's most valuable assets. In fact, it has been practically indispensible, as it has come as near to taking the place of a bank, since the First National closed its doors, as it is possible for a financial institution, other than a bank, to do. Elba and community certainly owe a lot to the Elba Merchants Exchange.

SCHOOL BUSSES—At a meeting held last Thursday, August 1, the Coffee County School Board let the contract to purchase 20 school bus bodies. Ten all-steel, 16-foot bodies, modernly equipped throughout, with shatter-proof glass, were purchased from the Bluebird Body Company of Fort Valley, Ga. Ten composite bodies, similarly equipped with steel frames, were ordered from Hackney Bros. Body Company of Wilson, N. C. The County Board furnishes the bodies and the contracting drivers are to furnish the chassis, which must be long wheel base. Dual rear wheels are recommended but not absolutely required. All old busses were rejected with the exception of the J. H. Oliver and T. E. Kilcrease busses in Pine Level district. They are comparatively new and passed inspection. Superintendent Rowe Watson states that everything possible is being done by the county board to make the transportation system safe and efficient. Most of the driver contracts have been closed and a list of the drivers will be published in The Clipper at an early date.

At last Thursday's meeting the county board let the contract for an additional room at Fairview school, which will give that fine school plant six rooms. The coming school term is shaping up more favorably than has been the case for several years, so far as Coffee County is concerned. Superintendent Watson and his proficient board are to be congratulated and thanked for the efficient way in which they have handled the county's school affairs.

SOLDIERS RETURN—Battery "D," 117th Field Artillery, Alabama National Guard, returned home Tuesday from their annual two-weeks encampment at Camp Beauregard, Louisiana. The boys report one of the best encampments they have ever had. They say the heat was terrific and the trip, made in army trucks, was quite tiresome, but everything functioned efficiently and, taken as a whole, an enjoyable two weeks was spent.

* * * * *

BIG WEEK—As Elba's home-coming week draws closer, it grows bigger and bigger. Committees in charge have worked out a program that will provide fine entertainment for young and old. Everybody is entering wholeheartedly into the preparations and a big week is in prospect. Jess Blocker was as busy as a hen with one biddy last week until he got all of his band boys placed in homes during their stay here. When he finished his job he was as proud of his accomplishment as Bud Conner is when he poles out a home-run after striking out every other time at bat.

SAD DEATH—The whole community was shocked when announcement was made Monday morning that the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Dawkins, little Minnie Lou, had died Sunday night, after an illness of less than two days. The little girl was stricken with diphtheria Saturday morning and although she was able to be up and about most of the time until a few minutes before her death, the dread disease choked her to death shortly after serum had been administered. Little Minnie Lou was an unusually bright and winsome child and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Dawkins, will miss her almost if not quite as much as the grief-stricken parents.

Two brothers, John Carter and Walter, survive. The death occurred at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dawkins, west of Elba. Funeral services were held Monday morning at Richburg cemetery, conducted by Rev. W. M. Bush of New Brockton. Elba Funeral Home was in charge.

SHE LIKES TOBACCO, TOO—Last year, about this time, I wrote about what a tobacco connisseur Judge J. A. Carnley is and how much he enjoyed his trip to the tobacco country in North Carolina. Judge Carnley recently showed me a letter from Mrs. Carnley in which she described a tour through some of the tobacco plants of the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company, accompanied by her son-in-law, Mr. Ed Purvis, Jr., salesman for that concern. Mrs. Carnley intimated that while she has not cultivated any taste for the weed, she enjoys smelling the aroma from the curing leaves. I can sympathize with her. I was reared in a tobacco country and even yet my memory often goes back to those most fragrant of all aromas that used to emanate from those huge tobacco barns of my boyhood days. Mrs. Carnley says that North Carolina is harvesting a bumper crop of tobacco and a fine market is in prospect.

BODY OF GIRL RECOVERED SUNDAY FROM PEA RIVER

ENTERPRISE, Aug. 5.—The body of Ida Mae Wallace, 15-year-old daughter of a farmer in the Clayhatchie community, was found floating on the waters of Pea River Sunday morning, 47 hours after she was caught in the current and drowned Friday at 10 a.m.

The young girl was a member of a fishing party near Weeks Bridge. She and two other youngsters strayed from the main group and decided to take a dip in the stream in their clothes. Her companions stated that they thought she was fooling them until she sank the second time and was carried swiftly away.

The river had been dragged continuously since her disappearance was reported. Members of the searching party found the body Sunday morning floating about three and one-half miles down stream from the scene of the accident.

Funeral was held from Shiloh Church near Daleville Sunday afternoon, with the Rev. J. E. Plant officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Wallace, six brothers and four sisters survive.

Mr. and Mrs. Lander Cureton, who recently moved to Camden to make their home, were visitors to Elba the first of the week.

Miss Juanita Beasley of Tuscaloosa and Fred Folsom of Montgomery were guests of Mrs. J. M. Folsom Sunday.

Miss Anne Jones of Ariton was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley E. Blair the first of the week.

Miss Lallie Harper of Dothan spent the week-end with home folks.

Misses Leila and Claude Bryan of Brundidge were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bryan Monday.

Mrs. Byrd Mitchell, Jr., and children have returned from a two-weeks visit with relatives in Andalusia.

Mr. and Mrs. Euwell Johnson and daughter, Anne, Mrs. R. C. Johnson and N. L. Batten have returned to their homes in Jacksonville, Fla., after spending two weeks in Elba with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bullard and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Folsom of Pensacola are spending several days with relatives in Elba.

Miss Ruth Owen after spending several weeks in Montgomery with relatives returned to her home in Elba Saturday.

Supervisor Tells How Ticks Cause Screw Worms; Free Treatment Offered Farmers

Tick bites on animals often become infested with screw worms. When ticks are killed on animals with pine tar oil, screw worms do not infest such wounds, according to Dr. W. E. Dove, Director of Screw Worm Control, Atlanta, Ga.

Gulf Coast Ticks are very numerous where screw worms are infesting almost every wound on animals. Because of the size of the mouth parts of these ticks, they leave large wounds which do not heal quickly. The Gulf Coast Tick, which becomes abundant in July, August and September, is commonly found attached to the inside of the ears of many animals, especially cattle, hogs, sheep and goats. Ear wounds often lead to serious screw worm infestations of the head.

The ticks which we see in ears of animals are adults sucking the animal's blood. As soon as they are through feeding, they drop to the ground, where the female lays from 4,000 to 11,000 eggs. When these eggs hatch, the emerging larval ticks crawl up on some bit of vegetation to wait until an animal comes by close enough to crawl upon. They wait here until they die from starvation or until an animal comes by. If an animal comes by which can be crawled upon, they feed upon the blood of the animal and drop back to the ground a few days later, where they molt their skin and become larger ticks. The Gulf Coast Tick does this three times before it finally becomes the tick which is found in the ears of livestock. It takes from one to two and a half years to become fully grown.

When animals are regularly inspected, the Gulf Coast Tick is readily found in the ears. They are easily killed by applying Pine Tar Oil (dehydrated, and acid free, specific gravity of 1.064) to the ears every two weeks. Pine Tar Oil will kill the ticks already attached in the ears and will repel other ticks from attacking. This oil also repels the screw worm fly from laying eggs in or around tick bites, thus preventing screw worm infestations.

Free Screw Worm Treatment For All Stock Owners—

The U. S. Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine has been waging a control campaign on the screw worm fly in this and adjoining counties since the beginning of the screw worm season. Free benzol and pine tar oil are furnished to farmers for treatment of animals by this federal agency. All farmers and owners of livestock are requested to cooperate with federal authorities by reporting all cases of screw worms to your county screw worm supervisor. The supervisor for this district is Mr. J. B. Turner. Records of screw worm cases should be sent to him, New Brockton Rt. 2, or phone, 113, New Brockton.

SPECIAL ELECTION CALLED FOR TUES., SEPTEMBER 10

A special election to be held on Tuesday, September 10, has been called by Governor Graves in the twenty-fifth Senatorial District to elect a successor to Senator Thomas J. Thrower, who died suddenly at his home in Bradleyton July 12.

The twenty-fifth district is composed of the counties of Crenshaw, Coffee and Pike. Democratic Executive Committees of these counties met in special meetings and nominated Hon. W. H. Stoddard of Luverne as the successor to Senator Thrower. After action by the county committees, Mr. Stoddard's name was submitted to the State Committee, which likewise has placed him in nomination for the post.

The special election, which is to be held throughout the counties, will be very formal, as no opposition to Mr. Stoddard's nomination developed. Although a senator for the district is being chosen with as much speed as possible, he will have but little time to serve during the present session of the Legislature.

STATE'S NEW CAR TAGS TO BE RED AND WHITE

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 5.—Alabama automobile license tags for 1936 will duplicate the color combination represented in the State flag and the official colors of the University of Alabama—crimson and white. The arrangements will be crimson letters and figures on a white background.

The tag factory at Kilby prison is busy turning out 316,000 of these tags which the State Tax Commission will begin to distribute about Septemeber 1 to Probate Judges for issuance to owners of automobiles, trucks and other motor vehicles. Automobile license tax is due in Alabama on October 1 each year, and delinquent on and after November 15.

STILL CROWDED

The Clipper is crowded for space again this week on account of continuing the County Treasurer's report, and some other large advertisements which have been received. It is not very often that we have this amount of advertising and it would not prove very profitable to print extra pages just for one or two weeks. In order to carry the advertising in the regular size paper, we are again having to leave out the continued story and several features. We hope to start all of these next week.

Mrs. C. S. West of Greenville was here the first of the week to attend the shower given for Mrs. Lander Cureton.

Mrs. F. J. Mizell of Samson was a visitor to Elba Tuesday.

Miss Elvy Lee has returned to her home here after visiting friends in Samson.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bryan were business visitors to Ozark last Saturday.

Mrs. F. A. Farris and children have returned from Montgomery, where they have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Mitchell, Sr., for the past two weeks.

Mr. Hillary Jowers of Winter Garden, Fla., is a visitor in the home of his sister, Mrs. Dwight L. Moody.

Mr. Dwight L. Moody spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jowers, in the Rose Hill community. Mrs. Moody returned home with her husband after a two-weeks visit with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rowe and son, Billy, Mrs. Guy Gunter of New Brockton, Mrs. Glennie Smith and Miss Lillian Rowe went to Gulfport, Miss., last week to visit Mr. Greeley Rowe, who is in the Veteran's Hospital there.

PAGEANT REHEARSAL

The entire cast for the historical pageant which is to be presented Thursday evening for the home coming event, are requested to meet on Court Square next Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock for rehearsal. At this time the platform will be in place, and everyone taking part in the pageant is urged to be present for this rehearsal.

MRS. J. O. ENGLISH,
Chairman of Committee.

Mr. I. N. Heath of Montgomery is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Bullard. Mr. Heath had a pocket full of Montgomery scrip. He says that kind of money is being used quite successfully in the capital city and is enabling many business concerns to pay their city taxes and licenses that otherwise would be lost to the city. He says every business house in Montgomery gladly takes the scrip.

Miss Helen Jones returned home Sunday from a visit of several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. C. L. Hammock, in Atlanta. She also visited relatives in Eufaula and Dothan while away.

Home---Homecoming

Those words should be music to every ear.

But let us make it real music by giving home our patronage, our help, our good will, and the use of our efforts to make it a better home.

We want to give home all the help we can——Here to serve you.

LIBERTY NEWS

Elba, Ala., July 29, 1935.

Dear Editor:

I wonder how the many readers of The Clipper are this beautiful July morn? I think every one is doing fine out here in the Sticks. We are all glad that Brother T. M. Smith, who has been quite sick, is up and going again. Mr. and Mrs. Esmer Eiland have a brand new boy. They are doing fine.

We old people have been having the time of our lives. So many of the boys have come home, enjoying the fine watermelons, peaches, chickens and peas, and just to be at home, sweet home, for there is no place like home. I guess I had better name these boys, so our many friends can rejoice with us: Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Hayward Ross of Haynes City, Fla., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Fuller. Mr. and Mrs. Ross have visited relatives in Pike County. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ellenburg are visiting their parents. Mr. T. M. Smith and Mr. Henry Ellenburg. On July 8th, J. W. Boland and wife of Atlanta, Ga., spent the night with the writer. Last Sunday Flossie Boland arrived at home. On last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Wagner and Mrs. Annie Foster of Atlanta, Ga., Miss Ethel Player of Columbus, Ga., arrived here. They all left for their homes Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner, Mrs. Boland and the writer motored down to Opp Saturday evening to visit my brother, J. C. Boland, who has been sick for more than a year. We found him quite feeble. Can hardly speak. He was 71 in January.

Mr. Spencer and Exton Oliver and Mr. Harmon Messick made a trip to Montgomery last week.

How is the rain with you all? We had the heaviest rain Saturday at noon we have had for several years. The water rode over terraces it has not run over for a long time. I think it was near a four inch rain. There was a bucket in the yard that it measured three inches and was a leaking bucket. I do not know how much it leaked. How are the crops with you all? What crops I have seen seem to be very good. There has been a lot of soda used on cotton. I do not think any farmer should have used soda on cotton this year. I did not use any. I have not seen any cotton that was better than mine. The Government is trying to help us get rid of this great pile of surplus cotton and the farmers are doing their best to make every bale they can. We all ought to put a brick bat in our hat and then we would be sure there was something in it.

Spencer and John Oliver have made a trip to the Gulf. They carried thirty of the boys and girls. I tell you that is a fine trip. I think every one ought to take a trip to see the great waters. I would never tire of looking at that beautiful scene.

Mrs. Valla Jacobs and Mrs. Daisey Wallburg of Miami, Fla., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ellenburg. Mr. Cumye Messick and Miss Lois Foley were married last Wednesday night. Mr. Messick is the son of Mr. Hermon Messick. Miss Foley is the daughter of W. P. Foley. We wish them a long and happy life.

Well, we have been in a series of meetings. As the writer has been kinder sick, he has not been to meeting so much as he would have, but enjoyed the meetings very much, though there have been a few stones thrown at me, but I always take a stand for what I think is right and best for the children. I noticed the letter from Mt. Olive that two noble young ladies who accepted Christ as their personal Saviour and came with converted hearts were refused baptism by their grand parents, with whom they had lived since their mother's death. I will beg to say one of the girls is only sixteen years old, and we think she was converted several years ago. The other girl has just seen twelve summers. She had never taken any steps that way. I would like to relieve their grandmother from any part in this affair, as she had nothing to do with it. We thank the writer for the interest he has taken in us. Now, there is no one who knows more than the writer what a bad thing it is to drop a stumbling block for others. You see, the Master said it were better that a mill stone were tied to one's neck and they were cast into the sea. I will ask you all to read the 18th chapter of Genesis, especially the 17th, 18th and 19th verses: "And the Lord said, shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do, seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him. For I know him that he will command his children and his household after him and they shall keep the way of the Lord to do justice and judgment that the Lord may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him." Now when Israel had sinned and refused to go, Joshua cried out, "Choose this day whom you will serve; as for me and my house, we will serve the true and living God."

With best wishes to all,
H. I. BOLAND.

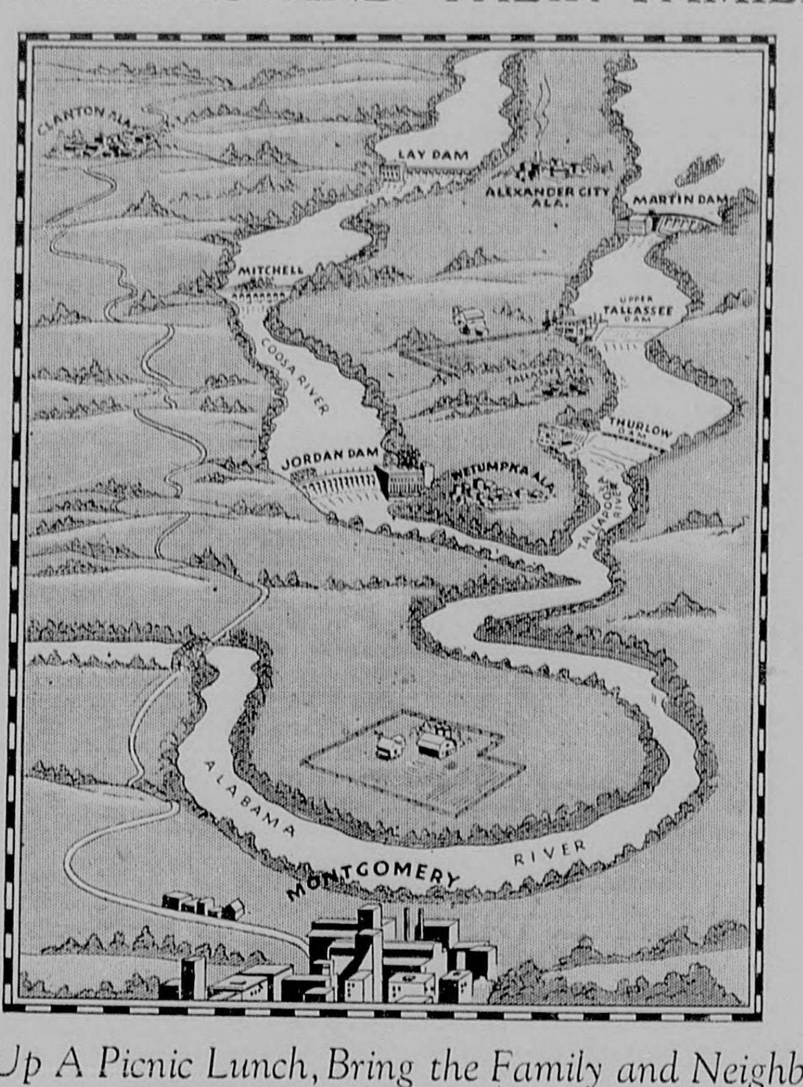
OPEN HOUSE MONTH
FOR ALABAMA POWER COMPANY CUSTOMERS AND THEIR FAMILIES



Pack Up A Picnic Lunch, Bring the Family and Neighbors With You and Enjoy Yourself

ALTHOUGH visitors are welcome to our power plants at any time, we have set the month of August aside as "Open House Month", and especially invite you and your friends to spend an enjoyable day at one of our many electric power generating plants. Plenty of refreshing drinking water is available and the shade of many trees makes a pleasant place to eat a picnic lunch.

FOREMOST IN POWER DEVELOPMENT

The power plants of this Company are among the outstanding ones of the Country. Mitchell Dam near Verbena, Ala., is the only one of its kind in existence. Martin Dam at Cherokee Bluffs on the Tallapoosa River backs up one of the largest artificial bodies of water in the United States, making a lake with a shore line of approximately 700 miles. The Gorgas Steam Plant, in the heart of the Alabama coal fields, was built to augment the hydro plants in seasons of drought, so that electric service could always be dependable. Lay Dam is the original large power development in Alabama and one of the first in the South. Jordan Dam, Thurlow Dam and Upper Tallassee all have features of great interest.

VISIT ONE OR MORE OF THESE POWER PLANTS

Your visit will be not only instructive, but you will be impressed with the manner in which electricity is made and will have a better idea of the great part this Company has played in the development of the natural resources of Alabama and the care it takes to keep your electric service dependable.

Any of our stores will give you directions to help you find the dam sites easily. See one or all of them. You will receive a cordial welcome.

Other Points of Interest

Altho not as spectacular as the hydro-electric plants, but fully as interesting, are the substations from which electricity is "directed" to the various towns and communities over the State. On your way to or from the dams, you may want to stop at one of the following substations, to which any filling station in the towns where they are located can direct you.

What is the yardstick for a cigarette...

Take mildness for one thing—how does it measure up for mildness? Chesterfields are milder—not flat or insipid, of course, but with a pleasing flavor.

Then take taste for another thing—does it have plenty of taste? Chesterfields taste better—not strong but just right.

How Cardui Helps Women To Build Up

Cardui stimulates the appetite and improves digestion, helping women to get more strength from the food they eat. As nourishment is improved, strength is built up, certain functional pains go away and women praise Cardui for helping them back to good health. . . . Mrs. C. E. Ratliff, of Hinton, W. Va., writes: "After the birth of my last baby, I did not seem to get my strength back. I took Cardui again and was soon sound and well. I have given it to my daughters and recommend it to other ladies." . . . Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

ALABAMA NEEDS CONCRETE ROADS

CONCRETE HIGHWAYS PAY FOR THEMSELVES

Three reasons why concrete is the most economical pavement:

1. Long life and low upkeep—funds which would otherwise be spent for repairs may be used to complete our highway system.
2. Scientific investigation has proved that it costs motorists up to 2 cents per mile less to drive on concrete than on inferior surfaces. The saving is in gas, oil, tires and car repairs.
3. Concrete builds business, promotes travel. A town on concrete is never cut off from all markets.

And in addition to these money-saving reasons concrete pavements give motorists relaxation . . . comfort . . . and SAFETY!

"An Open Letter to Henry Ford" is a booklet worth having. It's FREE!

WHY MAKE YOUR WIFE TENDER?

To be watchman over the old water heater isn't a pleasant duty at any time. It's work running up and down stairs several times a day to be sure the heat is on. It's no fun cleaning up litter or worrying about how much hot water is on tap. You can end this nuisance forever by installing a Westinghouse Electric. This automatic water heater never needs pampering. Once installed, you forget it — it never forgets you. Ask us to tell you how easy it is to own a Westinghouse and how economically it operates at our low heating rate. No obligation.

MRS. LANDER CURETON HONORED WITH SHOWER—

Misses Jean Brock, Emma Margaret Cooper, June English, Catherine Rushing and Mrs. DeWitt Brunson entertained Mrs. Lander Cureton with a miscellaneous shower at the home of the former on Tuesday afternoon.

The spacious living room of the Brock home was attractive with a wealth of pink roses and crepe myrtle combined with coral vine, a color scheme of pink and green being carried out also in the dainty refreshments served.

On entering guests were greeted at the door by Miss Totsye Rhodes, who was dressed in pink lace.

The receiving line was formed in the living room, where Miss Brock, Mrs. Cureton, the honor guest, Mrs. B. S. Franklin, mother of the honoree, Mrs. C. S. West of Greenville, mother of Mr. Cureton, and Mrs. J. M. Bonneau welcomed each individual guest of the afternoon.

The bride's register was in charge of Miss Nell Gardner Clark, gowned in flesh crepe.

Miss Ann Wright, in a dainty organdy frock, conducted guests to the dining room, where punch, sandwiches and mints were served.

The table, covered with a lace cloth, was centered with the crystal punch bowl embedded in wreaths of coral vine and pink rose buds. Pink and green candles were placed at intervals on the table. Serving and entertaining in the dining room were Misses June English, Emma Margaret Cooper and Corinne Bonneau.

Miss Catherine Rushing presided over the many useful and beautiful gifts. A program of music added to the pleasure of those present, and was contributed by Mrs. John Kendrick, Miss Mary Ruth Fleming and Miss Corinne Bonneau.

Mrs. Cureton looked charming in a navy sheer crepe model, with which she wore a navy felt hat and other accessories of blue.

Mrs. Franklin was gowned in pink crepe, Mrs. West in lavender lace, Mrs. Bonneau in white crepe.

The young ladies who were hostesses for the afternoon formed a pretty picture in varied hues of floor length afternoon frocks.

Seventy-five guests called between the hours of four and six.

STATE RESTS IN MURDER TRIAL OF ELMER ARANT

HAYNEVILLE, Aug. 6.—After two officers had testified that Elmer N. "Shorty" Arant admitted to them the slaying of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Norman at his home June 20, the State rested its case against the former baseball player here today.

Arant, on trial for slaying Mrs. Norman, lost his habitual composure as Coroner Emmett Sheehan testified the defendant told him he had slain the Normans and "wanted to get away from here before someone shoots me."

Former Sheriff Buck Meadows identified a 16-gauge automatic shotgun as the weapon found at the slaying when it was introduced as evidence. He also testified that Arant admitted both of the killings to him.

A Question to the Taxpayers and School Patrons of COFFEE COUNTY

Your county (including its municipalities) receives annually in taxes from electric utilities approximately

$9,000*

Of which amount approximately

$7,000

Goes Directly to Public Schools

TVA pays no County taxes and no other taxes from which your County will receive any share.

If TVA takes over all electric operations in the State of Alabama, are you prepared, as tax-payers, to make up this huge loss? Are you prepared, as school patrons, to accept this reduction in school revenues?

*Includes County and City Ad Valorem Taxes and Licenses; also State 3 Mill School Ad Valorem Taxes; State Kilowatt Hour Taxes and State Franchise Taxes allocated to Counties. From reports for 1933, viz., State Auditor's Report, State Tax Commission's Report, State Comptroller's Report; and information obtained from State Department of Education and State Tax Commission.

Governor Wants Sales Tax If And When People Of State Vote Homestead Exemption

MONTGOMERY, Aug. 13.—Gov. Bibb Graves today told the legislature, in joint session, that he favored the passage of a general sales tax at a special session in January to become effective if and when the voters of the state adopted a constitutional amendment for a $2,000 homestead exemption.

Prohibition was not mentioned in his 1,400-word address.

The chief executive, appearing before the legislature for the second time this session, declared that the financial condition of the state demanded more revenue but said he could not advocate a sales tax without the combined homestead exemption since he had made a campaign promise opposing the sales tax.

He urged adoption of the Conner poll tax amendment, recall and referendum, social security laws including a state department of public welfare and a department of labor, and asked for ratification of the child labor amendment to the Federal constitution.

Political observers had expected him to speak his mind on prohibition since announcement of his plan to address the legislature came right after modificationists had called at his office to determine his present views on liquor, beer and wine.

Returning to his office, the governor discovered that through an error in transcription of his message, his recommendation on reapportionment had been omitted. This recommendation was:

"I further recommend for your consideration that before this regular session ends you pass a reapportionment bill, as provided in the constitution. It is my judgment that any extreme or radical bill is foredoomed to defeat, therefore I commend moderation."

Governor Graves praised the New Deal under President Roosevelt, and said "I shudder to think of the despair, if not chaos, that woudl have been our lot except for leadership."

He declared that the full appropriation ($4,400,00) increase asked by the state department of education for public schools was needed for the minimum program of schools but pointed out that this would call for additional revenue. He proposed that appropriations to state departments, as a general rule, be retained at their present levels.

He recommended the passage of a uniform drivers license, and this recommendation drew loud applause from the packed house chamber where the joint session was held.

Noting the absence of any reference to prohibition, Rep. Staples of Mobile, wet leader, said his committee of modificationists would confer with the governor this afternoon or tomorrow.

He predicted that a referendum on beer would be submitted to the voters at the same time as the combination homestead exemption and sales tax proposal.

Miss Lola Mae Jones of Enterprise is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Prescott this week.

Mrs. Wiley Blair and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blair visited relatives near Clayton last Sunday.

W. S. McCOLLOUGH, PIONEER CITIZEN, DIED LAST FRIDAY

Mr. William Singleton McCollough, one of Coffee County's oldest and most widely known citizens, passed away at his home on Smith Avenue last Friday afternoon. He had been in feeble health for several months and a fall from a swing which he suffered two or three weeks ago is thought to have brought on his death, as he had been partially paralyzed since the accident.

Mr. McCollough was 85 years of age, having been born on July 3, 1850, in Chambers County (now Lee County). He moved to Coffee County during the year 1858 with his parents and settled in the Pleasant Ridge community, where he lived until a few years ago, when he moved to Elba. He was well known throughout the county and scores of friends will regret to learn of his death.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Laura McCollough; seven sons: Warren of Kinston, Cull, Math, Mark, Oscar and S. R. McCollough, all of Elba, and John McCollough of Gordon; five daughters: Mrs. A. L. McCollough, Mrs. John Holley, Mrs. Jesse Smith and Mrs. W. H. Goodson, all of Elba, and Mrs. John Peacock, of Laurel Hill, Fla.; three brothers: A. M. and Warren McCollough of Elba and Will McCollough of Glendale, Fla. He also leaves 55 grand children and 65 great great grand children.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Nichols and Rev. W. J. Hughes and interment was in the cemetery at Pleasant Ridge Church Saturday morning. Active pallbearers were Dave Lubert, Sam Reeves, Will White, Comer Devane, Luther Morris, Ernest Harper. Elba Funeral Home had charge of arrangements.

MORE FINE CANE

Mr. W. R. Rowell, who lives just above town on the Victoria road, sent us a sample of his cane crop last Thursday which is some of the finest we have seen this year. One stalk is the regular old red cane variety and is already matured nearly five feet. The other stalk is Kiana and measures six feet. Mr. Rowell has always made fine cane crops and is one of the best syrup makers in this section; in fact, he is an all-round good farmer.

FORT DEPOSIT SLAYER CONVICTED; SENTENCED TO DIE

HAYNEVILLE, Ala., Aug. 7.—A Lowndes County jury, at 8:15 o'clock tonight, decided that Elmer "Shorty" Arant must pay with his life for the slaying, June 20, of Mrs. John Norman at the former's home in Fort Deposit and Judge A. E. Gamble set September 20 as the date of execution. The jury had been out two hours and 24 minutes.

It was considered likely by court attaches that motion would be made by defense counsel for a new trial and a Supreme Court test of the case. The defense has 60 days during which to file appeal.

Arant stood motionless in a hushed courtroom as the verdict was read by the clerk, M. E. Marlette.

Arant was called to stand before Judge Gamble and he complied at once. Asked if he had anything to say before sentence was passed upon him he nodded.

"I have nothing to say," he responded quietly. "Are you satisfied with the trial, Judge?"

The jury, of which Mack McCurdy was foreman, was polled before the execution date was set. Arant, while the jurors deliberated, played dominoes in a small room adjoining the court chamber.

The courtroom, jammed during the afternoon session, seethed with excitement when it became known that the jury was ready to report. A large circle was formed about the judge's bench, many of the spectators standing on chairs and benches to get a better glimpse of the principals in the case.

The second announcement of interest came when Judge Gamble said that Arant's trial on the charge of slaying Mrs. Norman's husband would not begin tomorrow, as was scheduled. He dismissed the special venire summoned in the double-slaying trials.

Preceding the retirement of the jury for deliberation, Arant sat behind the defense counsel's table, his head buried in his folded arms, while Solicitor H. P. Rogers, in his closing argument, demanded the defendant's life. The State, in its summary, declared that Arant's motive was that "dead men tell no tales," and asserted further that the lack of powder burns on Mrs. Norman's body, together with the location of three empty shells, had refuted Arant's early "confession" that she had struggled with him over the weapon.

Solicitor Rogers told the jury that no witness had proved Arant insane at the actual time of the slayings, regardless of what it had indicated at other times. The defense testimony he described as "hypothetical" and termed Arant as a "mean man" and a "drunk." He denied that testimony had shown the defendant's loss of "free agency" or that actual mental disease caused his action in the crime. Even had Arant had delusions of his wife's infidelity, he argued, no "delusions were shown toward Mrs. Norman." The insanity plea he termed a "smoke screen."

THREE WOMEN, 2 MEN HURT IN HEAD-ON AUTO COLLISION

Five persons were severely injured, though none of them are in a dangerous condition, as the result of a head-on collision between two Fords on the Troy highway last Friday night.

Mrs. Pearl McGahey, Mary Jane Hall and Ernestine Hall, occupants of one car, were all considerably scratched, cut and bruised. Mrs. McGahey was badly cut on the nose and was badly bruised on the breast; Mary Jane had several teeth knocked out, besides the bruises; Ernestine suffered a bad cut just above the ankle on her left leg which required several stitches to close up.

Olin Reeves, driver of the other car, received a broken jaw bone and was caarried to a Troy hospital. Cecil Chapman, his companion, received less serious injuries. The accident occurred, so it was stated, when Reeves attempted to pass a wagon. He was so close and was traveling at such speed that he could not get back on his side of the road before hitting the other car. Both cars were damaged almost beyond repair.

TWIN BOLLS OF COTTON

More freaks in the plant and vegetable line have been seen this year than ever before. Mr. Walter Farris brought to The Clipper office Monday a small limb from a cotton stalk with twin bolls. Both these bolls came from the same square and there is another boll on the same limb. Other twin bolls have been found this year, as well as many other freaks.

Mrs. C. B. McDowell visited her daughters, Misses Frances and Mary June McDowell, in Dothan last Thursday.

Alonzo Thompson of Camp Hill was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Almon Strain and family Monday. He was accompanied home by Haldane Strain, who will spend this week visiting in Camp Hill.

Mrs. Byrd Mitchell, Jr., and children, Bobbie and Patsy, visited relatives in Andalusia Monday.

About People and Things

By C. B. McDowell

ENJOYED BIRTHDAY — Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Farris and daughter, Mrs. W. A. Bell, and the latter's children, Frances and Sonny, helped to make Mr. Farris' father's 83rd birthday anniversary a happy occasion by carrying a basket filled with good things to Mr. Martin Van Buren Farris' home, west of Elba, on Tuesday, August 6. They found the second oldest married couple in Coffee County in high spirits and all present spent an enjoyable day. Coffee County's Democratic Committee Chairman says his father greatly appreciates having his children and friends visit him and urges that all should make their visits more frequent.

FLOOD RESCUER DIES—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kendrick attended the funeral of their brother-in-law, Mr. H. F. Roberts, who died at his home at Winfield August 5th and was buried August 7th, aged 56 years. Mr. Roberts expired while spraying beans in his garden. He was the husband of Mrs. Kendrick's sister and seemed more like a real brother to Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick than a brother by marriage. Mrs. Kendrick says Mr. Roberts was the first of her relatives to come to their rescue at the time of the flood. He floated on a raft from Windham's Mill.

BITE HIM AGAIN—The irrepressible Duke Taylor was in town Monday. He reported that he was recently bitten by a pet dog which died from the effects of the bite. He said he is taking rabies shots and the doctor warned him against drinking anything stronger than creek water for 60 days. Duke said his wife has another dog tied up to be ready to bite him again at the expiration of the 60-day period.

GREAT REVIVAL—Posters and handbills have been broadcast far and near announcing the great revival services that are to start at the Elba Methodist Church Sunday morning, August 18, at 11 o'clock. The noted converted Greek evangelist, John Paul Pappas, who has had remarkable success as a Protestant evangelist since being converted from Greek Catholicism, will do the preaching, services to be held twice daily, at 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. Song services will start each evening at 7:45. The Ramsey sisters of Cordova, Ala., unusually sweet Gospel singers, will aid in making this one of the greatest revival meetings ever held in this section of Alabama.

Rev. John Paul Pappas was born in the traditional Garden of Eden and was reared and educated in the Greek Catholic Church. He has had experiences and hardships undergone by but few men. He is a preacher of extraordinary power and ability. He is the Florida Conference evangelist and under his powerful preaching great numbers of his fellow countrymen who congregate at Plant City, Fla., have renounced the Catholic faith and have become Protestants. He relates his experiences in an intensely interesting way. He is filled with the Holy Spirit and has remarkable power over his congregations.

The Ramsey sisters are wonderful workers among children and young people, as well as sweet singers. Their solos and duets thrill their listeners and their versatile talents, together with the powerful preaching of the Greek evangelist, go to make up a combination that should give Elba a real spiritual awakening such as this community has not had in many a day.

* * * * *

SERVICE ON SQUARE—Rev. J. P. Pappas, the Greek evangelist who will preach at the Methodist Church all next week, starting Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, announces that he will arrive in Elba Friday night. Arrangements have been made for him to preach in the Elba courtyard Saturday afternoon at 2:30. The Ramsey sisters will also be present and sing some of their Gospel songs. Everybody is invited to hear this great Greek preacher Saturday afternoon. It is announced that Rev. Pappas will preach at Ham school house Sunday afternoon. It is reported that the Liberty Church congregation will go in a body, after Sunday School, to Ham school house to hear the Greek. The Oliver school bus will take a load.

FREAK COTTON BOLLS—Willie Bryan, who has one of the prettiest cotton fields I have seen this year, beyond Evergreen Cemetery, on the Elba-Brantley highway, was exhibiting a cotton square in town Wednesday from which two open bolls had come. Mr. Bryan says he has been raising cotton for a good many years, but he never saw two bolls grow out of one square before. His cotton is still green and is opening more slowly than that of some of his neighbors, but it gives promise of yielding close to a bale per acre.

* * * * *

COTTON POURING IN — The hot sunshiny weather that has prevailed in this section for the past week has caused cotton bolls to burst rapidly and fields are white to the harvest everywhere. Crowds of happy cotton pickers are to be seen throughout the country on every hand and the yields are turning out very satisfactorily. The roads are lined with wagons and trucks hauling the fleecy staple in to the gins. At nine o'clock Wednesday morning there were about fifty bales of cotton in the Elba gin yards awaiting their turn. Up to the present time something like 250 bales have been ginned in Elba. Gins throughout the county are running at full capacity and if the weather remains fair this week will be one of the biggest ginning weeks of the season. It was reported that $25 per ton was the price being paid for seed Wednesday, compared with $20 at this time last year. The market price for green cotton is around 11 cents per pound. From reading the papers, it seems unlikely that a government loan on cotton will be announced any time soon.

BEAUTY PAGEANT — One of the most exciting and closely contested beauty shows ever held in Southeast Alabama was staged at the Elba Theatre Tuesday night, sponsored by the Fidelis Class of the Baptist Sunday School. About fifty merchants and individuals had sponsored something like three dozen of Coffee County's fairest maidens to decide who should be declared "Miss Coffee County." The theatre was filled to overflowing at two performances and the judges had one of the most difficult tasks of their lives in deciding which were most beautiful among such a wealth of loveliness. However, a decision had to be forthcoming, and after much consideration, Miss Jean Brock was given first place and is now enthroned as "Miss Coffee County for 1935." Miss Gladys Clark was voted second and Miss June English was given third place. A pleasing feature of the contest was the fact that instead of being what has come to be the "conventional" bathing beauty custom throughout the land and country, the contestants in Tuesday night's pageant were attired in pretty frocks. Perhaps if those in charge of "pulchritude" contests all over the country could realize how much more charming and alluring a pretty girl is when she is enveloped in a pretty frock than when turned loose with as near nothing as custom allows, there would be a changing back to the good old days when womanhood was revered and respected for her loveliness and modesty. All ideas to the contrary notwithstanding, the fact remains that the average man still regards a woman attired in a becoming dress as being inestimably more beautiful and attractive than one undressed in a one-piece bathing suit. I don't plead guilty to being in the "old fogy" class, either. My many years spent at Miami and other noted resorts should make me a fairly competent judge of such matters.

GIN CERTIFICATES ARE GIVEN COFFEE FARMERS

The allotment of gin permits for Coffee County cotton growers was received last week at the county agent's office and distribution, which began on last Friday, has been completed, the last appointment having been filled at Elba yesterday, when certificates were delivered to farmers of Beats 16 and 20.

The allotment included 5,949 individual gin certificates and their delivery required contacting the same number of farmers. The manner of distribution this year was an improvement over that of 1934, in that one issue includes all certificates for the season. Last year's allotment contained three issues.

The present distribution of ginner's certificates includes all tax free cotton going to the growers in the county, a sum total of 7,858,678 pounds.

Compliance work on twenty-six hundred 1935 cotton contracts is practically completed. Fifty-two supervisors are now checking up on 1935 peanut contracts.

As soon as supervisors complete checking corn acreage, 258 corn-hog contract signers will receive the first half of the benefit payment due them. The checks for this payment total $7,025.40. Delivery will be made in a few days.

DOLORES FRANKLIN CELEBRATES THIRD BIRTHDAY—

As a compliment to her little granddaughter, Dolores Franklin, on her third birthday anniversary, Mrs. Wiley Blair entertained a number of her small friends Thursday afternoon at the Blair residence.

Guests were greeted at the door by Miss Carolyn Russ and registered by Mrs. Forest Talbot, who wrote a wish for each small child in the memory book of Dolores.

The house was attractive for the happy occasion with a lovely arrangement of garden flowers. In the dining room, Mrs. Frank Blair served cool-ade from a lace covered table, over rose, and decorated with roses, coral vine and fern.

After an hour of games, contests and story-telling, directed by Mrs. Walter Jackson, Mrs. Blair, the hostess, served cake and ice cream. Favors were given each guest, and Dolores was the recipient of many lovely birthday gifts.

Invited were thirty-five children.

BOWDEN FAMILY HOLDS REUNION

Members of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bowden, prominent Coffee County family, held a reunion at the old home in the Northwestern part of the county on last Sunday, August 11th. Attending were all the Bowden brothers, namely: Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bowden, of Goshen; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bowden and Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Bowden, of Troy; Mr. and Mrs. G. C Bowden, of Hartford, Oscar Bowden, of Leesburg, Fla.; Mrs. Eva Bowden, of Henderson.

Many other relatives joined in the reunion and a bounteous feast was enjoyed at the noon hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. Davis and son of Birmingham visited relatives and friends in Elba and Enterprise the first of this week. Their many friends are always glad to welcome them back home.

Mrs. L. Gunnels had as her guests last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Scofield of Mobile, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Scofield and Mrs. R. E. Scofield of Opp.

Elba Host To Hundreds Of Visitors; Governor To View Camp, Home Projects Today

With the list of visitors constantly increasing, today finds the City of Elba in the midst of her first "home coming" celebration. In scores of homes throughout the city are former residents who have come back to renew old acquaintances and join in the festivities arranged for the week.

The program for the week got under way Tuesday when Sacred Harp singers from all over this section gathered at the court house for an all day session. In the afternoon the visitors were entertained with an address by Hon. Hugh White, president of the Alabama Public Service Commission. Late in the afternoon and early evening, community singing, dancing contests and other diversions delighted the crowds. The main attraction of the evening was the beauty show at the Elba Theatre, when Miss Jean Brock was chosen "Miss Coffee County for 1935." She will receive a free trip to the state wide contest at Birmingham later in the month. Contestants were entered from all over the county. The show was attended by large crowds.

The program Wednesday started off with Seven-Shape singing by a large choir from all over the county, and will continue throughout the day. During the morning, Hon. I. T. Quinn, state commissioner of conservation, addressed the visitors.

Hon. Thomas E. Knight, Jr., Lieutenant Governor, was scheduled to speak at 2:30 o'clock. Another interesting feature of the day's program was the appearance of the Alabama Boy's Industrial School Band. The boys were expected to reach Elba shortly after noon and two or three concerts will be given by them. It is useless to say that Elbians and their visitors will get much pleasure from the visit of Captain Eugene C. Jordan and his splendid band. They will remain with us until Friday afternoon.

Big Program Thursday

Today (Thursday) is the big day and the program will perhaps be the highlight of the week. Besides Sacred Harp singing, band concerts and a number of other local features, Governor Bibb Graves, Hon. Thad Holt, Dr. L. N. Duncan, Mr. R. K. Green, Mr. W. G. Henderson, Mr. R. J. Goode, and perhaps other state officials and federal administrative directors are expected to be present for a specially arranged program at the Farmer's Conservation Camp near Elba.

Homestead To Be Built In One Day

The building of a complete farm settlement, including a three-room dwelling, smoke house, chicken house and barn, will be the goal of the Rural Homesteads division, under the direction of Mr. Louis B. Ford, general administrator. This "stunt" will take place on the W. N. Hudson farm, eight miles from Elba on the Brantley highway. Materials will be assembled and all the houses will be erected and put in condition for occupancy during the day.

All labor for this project is coming from the training camp here, where these young married farmers are now receiving their practical and scientific training in home building, farming, reforestation, etc. The material comes from timber on lands included in the project and is being fabricated at the Cooper Lumber Company's plant in West Elba, which is being operated by the Rural Homesteads authorities. First plans were to complete the dwelling, paint it and move a family into it before five o'clock. However, the inconvenience of occupying a freshly painted house may delay moving the family, but the buildings will be finished from foundation to roof.

The fact that officials of the Rural Homesteads project are attempting this feat in one day is drawing widespread attention. No doubt many visitors will visit the scene during the day. All are cordially invited.

Historical Pageant

Last but not least on the program for Thursday is the historical pageant to be presented in the late afternoon and early evening. There are to be about 18 scenes showing in a brief way the history of Elba from the time of the Indians down to the present day. Citizens of the county, both old and young, will enjoy this big show. Approximately three hundred people will take part in the pageant. Those who attend will no doubt learn some historical facts about our city and community which will be worth while.

Friday will be the last day of the week's celebration, and has been set aside as "Levee Appreciation Day." Band concerts, public speaking by some distinguished visitors, and many other attractions will help make the last day very interesting. A big "get-together" barbecue has been planned. Admission to the barbecue will be by card only. Tickets have been on sale at drug stores during the week.

RULES AND PRICES FOR AUTO TAGS MADE PUBLIC

The new prices and rules for Alabama's automobile tags, which will become effective October 1st, have been made public and reveal a number of changes.

On the whole, tags will be cheaper, but the law shortens by three weeks the time permitted owners to buy tags for passenger cars before they become delinquent. For years the public has had through November 14th to secure their tags before the penalties were added, but the new tag laws move the date up to October 25, for passenger cars, but trucks were allowed the usual period, October 1 through November 14.

The Austin and probably a few of the old model coupes of other makes of cars will be the only vehicles carrying the A classification, which will cost the owner only $5. The price range is from $5 to $18, whereas under the old law it was from $11.75 to $30.50.

The biggest saving to be incurred will be for the car owner who has been paying $20 and above for his tag.

The weight and price schedule was announced as follows:

Cars weighing 2,000 pounds or less, $5; 2,000 to 2,500 pounds, $9; 2,500 to 3,250 pounds, $13; in excess of 250 pounds, $18. The old schedule was cars weighing 2,500 pounds or less, $11.75; 2,500 to 3,000 pounds, $17,25; 3,000 to 3,500 pounds, $19.75; 3,500 to 4,000 pounds, $26.75; and in excess of 4,000 pounds, $30.50.

Practically no change was made in the price of truck tags, it was explained.

SHORT ILLNESS FATAL TO M. A. HEAD, OF VICTORIA

Mr. Madison Alexander Head, well known farmer of the Victoria community, passed away at the family residence early last Friday morning following an attack of pneumonia. He had been ill only a few days. He was 80 years of age.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Emma Head, two sons: W. M. and S. M. Head; four daughters: Mrs. Mary Goodson, Mrs. Nettie Folsom, Mrs. Rittie Crook and Mrs. Grady McDurmont.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Pierce and the body laid to rest in the cemetery at Victoria. Eight of his grand sons acted as pallbearers. Elba Funeral Home had charge of arrangements.

MRS. JAKE MORROW ENTERTAINS CLUB—

Mrs. Jake Morrow very delightfully entertained her bridge club on Thursday of last week. The apartments were made very attractive with baskets of zinnias and roses.

After several progressions of bridge, the hostess served a delicious salad plate to the members and Mrs. P. G. Mathis, Mrs. Harold English, Misses Sara Shealy and Kayron Campbell.

Mrs. J. J. Farris, who has been spending several weeks in Sneads, Fla., with relatives, has returned to her home in Elba.
